

1. BEA Wise All Weather Fund (the "Fund") is subject to general investment risk, asset allocation risk and currency risk.
2. The Fund is subject to risk of termination of the investment advisory agreement (the "IAA") with BEA. The Fund may either have to undergo material changes in investment objective and policy or be terminated if the IAA is terminated.
3. The Fund may invest in Exchanged Traded Funds ("ETFs"), which may not be actively managed and is subject to risks relating to investment in ETFs generally. Falls in the related tracking index are expected to result in a corresponding fall in the value of the relevant ETF. An ETF's returns may deviate from that of its tracking index.

5. The Fund is subject to equity markets risk such as changes in investment sentiment, political, economic conditions and issuer-specific factors which may adversely affect the fund value.
6. Distributions paid out of capital amount to a return or withdrawal of part of the unitholders original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Such distribution may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value per unit. A positive distribution yield does not imply a positive return.
10. In terms of currency hedged class units, adverse exchange rate fluctuations between the base currency of the Fund and the class currency of the currency hedged class units may result in a decrease in return and/or loss of capital for unitholders. Over-hedged or under-hedged positions may arise and there can be no assurance that the currency hedged class units will be hedged at all times or that the manager will be successful in employing the hedge.

Non-RMB based (e.g. Hong Kong) investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors base currencies (for example HKD) will not depreciate.
